AGAIN ADVANCECapture and Retain Important German Position.

REPULSE COUNTER ATTACKS

London War Office Gives Brief Details of Another Engagement Along the Western Front—General Offensive Movement of the Allies May Be Under Way.London, April 20.—Activity prevails again along the western battle front.
Engagements are reported along the Meuse and the Lorraine border and in the vicinity of Ypres, where, according to an official statement of the war office, an important battle has been won by the British army.As the time nears for the expected general offensive of the allies it is believed in some circles here that the movement already may be under way.
Others military observers maintain that the battles of the last few days are too isolated to admit of such an inference."A successful action commencing on the evening of the 17th culminated in the capture and complete occupation of an important point known as Hill 60, which lies about two miles south of Zillebke, to the east of Ypres," says the war office statement.
"This hill dominates the country to the north and northwest.""The successful explosion of a mine under the hill commenced the operations and many Germans were killed by this and fifteen prisoners were captured, including an officer.""At daybreak on the 18th the enemy delivered a heavy counter attack against this hill, but were repulsed with heavy loss. They advanced in close formation and our machine gun battery got well into them."

Counter Attacks Fruitless.

"Desperate efforts were made by the Germans to recover the hill, but they were everywhere repulsed with great loss. In front of the captured position, upon which we are now consolidated in strength, hundreds of dead are lying.""Two more German aeroplanes were brought down in this area. Since the 15th inst. the total loss to the enemy is five aeroplanes."Successes in the Vosges and violent artillery duels are reported in the official statement made public at Paris."A German counter attack at Les Eperages was completely repulsed," the statement asserts. "In the Mont-mare wood an infantry action without appreciable result on either side occurred. In the region of Regnevill there was a somewhat violent artillery duel in which we gained a clear advantage.""In the Vosges our attack carried out on both banks of the Fecht river resulted in a further advance by forcing the enemy to vacate precipi-tately Edlbrucke, above Metzlar, where they abandoned a large amount of material."

PLAYERS MAY JOIN ARMY

Professional Football Will Cease in Great Britain.London, April 20.—There will be no association football cup ties or league matches next season, said F. J. Wall, secretary of the football association.
This decision was not unexpected. A continuous outcry has been going on since the beginning of the war, declaring it scandalous that the pick of Britain's athletes should play football instead of joining the army.Amateur football practically stopped when the war commenced, but the professionals, who number nearly 5,000, continued as usual. Secretary Wall explained this as follows:"It was impossible to stop the game at the beginning of the season because contracts had been signed with the players, landlords and contractors, amounting to three quarters of a million pounds, and these had to be fulfilled. No fresh contracts will be made. We hope the players will join the army."

SAYS FRANCE IS GRATEFUL

Ambassador Jusserand Talks to Daughters of Revolution.Washington, April 20.—The need of self-possession, calmness and a judicial temperament on the part of the United States in the present world crisis was urged by President Wilson in a speech before the opening session of the twenty-fourth continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution.The president said self-possession is the supreme test of a nation's mettle and urged the congress to rally to the cause of righteousness, as ministered by those who hold their minds quiet and judge upon principle.After the president's speech Ambasador Jusserand of France told the congress that the United States had behaved in the European crisis in such a way as to command the grate-tude and thankfulness of the world."We in France," he said, "have learned to know what the American heart is made of—the pure American sold that is in it. I am glad that I may affirm the thanks of France for the generosity of America."

THROWING HAND GRENADES

British Soldiers Are Honored for Conspicuous Bravery.London, April 20.—The important part that hand grenades are playing in the western campaign is made evident by the fact that of five awards of the Victoria Cross announced three were for conspicuous bravery displayed in the use of these missiles.Private Edward Barber of the First battalion of the Grenadier guards at Neuve Chapelle "ran in front of his grenade company and threw bombs on the enemy with such effect that a great number of them at once surrendered.""When the grenade party reached Barber," the report making the awards says, "they found him quite alone and unsupported and with the enemy surrendering all about him."Lance Corporal Fuller of the Grenadier guards won his cross in the same battle."Seeing a party of the enemy endeavoring to escape along a communication trench," the report says, "Corporal Fuller ran quite alone toward the men and killed the leading man with a bomb. The remainder of the men, nearly fifty, finding no means of evading his bombs, surrendered to him."

the shipyard here for the naval board's survey on which will be based the time to be extended for making

WAGES BEFORE A DIVIDEND

Steel Corporation Slight Common Stockholders.New York, April 20.—Directors of the United States Steel corporation, it became known, in voting at their last quarterly meeting in January to pass the dividend on the common stock did so in the face of opposition on the part of many stockholders who thought the dividend should be declared, even if the corporation had to reduce wages to its great army of employees to obtain the money for the dividend.Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the corporation, divulged this situation at the annual stockholders' meeting in Hoboken.HOUSE INCREASES
AID FOR SCHOOLSMinnesota Body Also Raises General Appropriations.St. Paul, April 20.—Casting aside all notions of economy the house increased the school aid "pork barrel" by $1,091,900 and thus not only made possible an extra legislative session, but made the total appropriations for the next biennial period higher than ever before in the history of the state, should its money bills ultimately be approved."I am positive that the senate never will approve of that increase in the school aid," said Senator A. J.
Rockne of Zumbrota, chairman of the senate finance committee. "Should the house not recede it surely means an extra session of the legislature."The situation is made more complicated because each of the house appropriation bills which have reached the senate have been side-tracked and the senate bills substituted.If the house bills go through the total appropriations for the next biennial period out of the revenue fund would be $19,500,000. The amount now is $19,369,919, with $164,000 in claims and ditch grants not included.The 1913 legislature, called the most extravagant in the history of the state, only spent $19,094,188, while the 1911 session spent $17,662,308.
The total this year would have been $18,278,919 if the house had not added the $1,091,900 for school aid.VILLA SUFFERS

LEAVES FIVE THOUSAND DEAD

General Obregon Wins Important Victory on Celaya Battlefield and His Army Is Pursuing the Enemy in Their Flight in the Direction of the American Line.El Paso, Tex., April 20.—His army, crushed by the forces of Alvaro Obregon, General Francisco Villa, with a remnant of his former army, is in flight to the border. Villa left more than 5,000 men dead on the Celaya battlefield, as many more are in hospitals in Aguas Calientes and Guadalajara and more than a thousand are prisoners of Obregon.Confirmation of his defeat in his last desperate battle at Celaya was sent to the border by Villa himself in messages to personal friends. From other sources close to Villa it is learned that following the defeat, the third he had met with at Celaya, Villa quarreled with his chief lieutenant, Felipe Angeles, and had Angeles arrested.The plan of campaign had been snapped out by Angeles and Villa had refused to carry out the suggestions made by the artillery commander. After a crushing defeat had been administered to the Villa forces Angeles upbraided Villa for not carrying out the suggestions he had made.Villa became angry, arrested Angeles and at once was met with a revolt among his own men. Attempting to put down the revolt Villa is said to have shot down several of his officers. The army quickly divided, a large portion of it declaring for Angeles.

Villa Flees With Remnant.

Villa, with a remnant of his army numbering not more than half of his original command, is at Aguas Cal-ientes, 240 miles north of Celaya.A desperate effort to reorganize his army there is in progress, the advices say, but the men have learned that Villa is not invincible, have lost their fear of him and are rebelling openly against going to battle again against Obregon and his Yaqui Indians.Simultaneously with Villa's defeat at Celaya came news to the border of a general crumbling of the Villa movement for control in Mexico.To strengthen his army at Celaya, Villa has drawn upon garrisons in every portion of his territory until in many cities there was no defense army and Carranzaists are reported to be seizing and occupying a number of places which Villa had wrested from Carranza control.General Obregon, according to Car-ranzaista advices, is in close pursuit of the Villa forces and will not give the northern general a chance to rally his army. Apparently Villa is making for Torreon, which he has fortified in anticipation of having to withdraw from the south.

Ready to Make Reparation for Sinking Dutch Vessel.London, April 20.—The German government's willingness to make reparation for the sinking in the North sea last week by a German submarine of the Dutch steamer Katwyk is indicated in a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam.This message says semi-official announcement was made at The Hague that the German government, acting on its own initiative, sent the following declaration to the Dutch government."At once, after the event became known, the German government ordered an inquiry and requested the Dutch government to send to Berlin an official report. If inquiry proves that the Katwyk has been sunk by a German submarine the German government will express unhesitatingly its sincere regret and offer full compensation."

hundreds were worshipping within the edifice, were sentenced to serve not less than six years nor more than

RAIDER IS NOW IN DRYDOCK

United States Naval Board Will Examine Kronprinz Wilhelm.

Newport News, Va., April 20.—The German auxiliary cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm was moved into drydock at the shipyard here for the naval board's survey on which will be based the time to be extended for making the cruiser seaworthy. United States naval officers will make the examination immediately.

Captain Thierfelder requested additional coal and provisions for port purposes which probably will be granted.

WAGES BEFORE A DIVIDEND

Steel Corporation Slights Common Stockholders.

New York, April 20.—Directors of the United States Steel corporation, it became known, in voting at their last quarterly meeting in January to pass the dividend on the common stock did so in the face of opposition on the part of many stockholders who thought the dividend should be declared, even if the corporation had to reduce wages to its great army of employees to obtain the money for the dividend.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the corporation, divulged this situation at the annual stockholders' meeting in Hoboken.

HOUSE INCREASES AID FOR SCHOOLS

Minnesota Body Also Raises General Appropriations.

St. Paul, April 20.—Casting aside all notions of economy the house increased the school aid "pork barrel" by $1,091,900 and thus not only made possible an extra legislative session, but made the total appropriations for the next biennial period higher than ever before in the history of the state, should its money bills ultimately be approved.

"I am positive that the senate never will approve of that increase in the school aid," said Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota, chairman of the senate finance committee. "Should the house not recede it surely means an extra session of the legislature."

The situation is made more complicated because each of the house appropriation bills which have reached the senate have been sidetracked and the senate bills substituted.

If the house bills go through the total appropriations for the next biennial period out of the revenue fund would be $19,500,000. The amount now is $19,369,919, with $164,000 in claims and ditch grants not included.

The 1913 legislature, called the most extravagant in the history of the state, only spent $19,094,158, while the 1911 session spent $17,662,308. The total this year would have been $18,278,919 if the house had not added the $1,091,900 for school aid.

VILLA SUFFERS SEVERE DEFEAT

Remnant of His Army Is Fleeing Towards Border.

LEAVES FIVE THOUSAND DEAD

General Obregon Wins Important Victory on Celaya Battlefield and His Army Is Pursuing the Enemy in Their Flight in the Direction of the American Line.

El Paso, Tex., April 20.—His army, crushed by the forces of Alvaro Obregon, General Francisco Villa, with a remnant of his former army, is in flight to the border. Villa left more than 5,000 men dead on the Celaya battlefield, as many more are in hospitals in Aguas Calientes and Guadalupe and more than a thousand are prisoners of Obregon.

Confirmation of his defeat in his last desperate battle at Celaya was sent to the border by Villa himself in messages to personal friends. From other sources close to Villa it is learned that following the defeat, the third he had met with at Celaya, Villa quarreled with his chief lieutenant, Felipe Angeles, and had Angeles arrested.

The plan of campaign had been snipped out by Angeles and Villa had refused to carry out the suggestions made by the artillery commander. After a crushing defeat had been administered to the Villa forces Angeles upbraided Villa for not carrying out the suggestions he had made.

Villa became angry, arrested Angeles and at once was met with a revolt among his own men. Attempting to put down the revolt Villa is said to have shot down several of his officers. The army quickly divided, a large portion of it declaring for Angeles.

Villa Flees With Remnant.

Villa, with a remnant of his army numbering not more than half of his original command, is at Aguas Calientes, 240 miles north of Celaya.

A desperate effort to reorganize his army there is in progress, the advice say, but the men have learned that Villa is not invincible, have lost their fear of him and are rebelling openly against going to battle again against Obregon and his Yaqui Indians.

Simultaneously with Villa's defeat at Celaya came news to the border of a general crumbling of the Villa movement for control in Mexico.

To strengthen his army at Celaya, Villa has drawn upon garrisons in every portion of his territory until in many cities there was no defense army and Carranzalistas are reported to be seizing and occupying a number of places which Villa had wrested from Carranza control.

General Obregon, according to Carranzalistas advice, is in close pursuit of the Villa forces and will not give the northern general a chance to rally his army. Apparently Villa is making for Torreón, which he has fortified in anticipation of having to withdraw from the south.

GERMANS TO PAY DAMAGE

Ready to Make Reparation for Sinking Dutch Vessel.

London, April 20.—The German government's willingness to make reparation for the sinking in the North sea last week by a German submarine of the Dutch steamer Katwyk is indicated in a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam.

This message says semi-official announcement was made at The Hague that the German government, acting on its own initiative, sent the following declaration to the Dutch government:

"At once, after the event became known, the German government ordered an inquiry and requested the Dutch government to send to Berlin an official report. If inquiry proves that the Katwyk has been sunk by a German submarine the German government will express unhesitatingly its sincere regret and offer full compensation."

ANARCHISTS ARE SENTENCED

Frank Abarno and Carmine Carbone Given Terms in Sing Sing.

New York, April 20.—Frank Abarno and Carmine Carbone, the anarchists who made and set a bomb in St. Patrick's cathedral March 2 when hundreds were worshipping within the edifice, were sentenced to serve not less than six years nor more than twelve in Sing Sing prison.

Abarno and Carbone were found guilty by a jury last week. The detection and conviction was due to the detective work of a young Italian policeman, Amedeo Polignani.

MUNICIPAL DANCES
IN CHICAGO DOOMED.

Biloxi, Miss., April 20.—Municipal dances as a permanent institution in Chicago are doomed by decision of the finance committee of the Chicago city council. The committee came here to consider the Chicago budget for 1916.
The members reached the conclusion that Chicago does not need a welfare department which experimented with the dances last winter and no appropriation will be made for its continuance. This, it was said, seals the fate of the
dances, which, it is admitted,
were largely attended.

TERRE HAUTE MEN IN FEDERAL PRISON

Twenty-one Begin Serving Time
for Election Frauds.

Leavenworth, Kan., April 20.— Twenty-one city officials and former officials of Terre Haute, Ind., convicted in the election conspiracy cases, are now in the United States penitentiary here as prisoners, serving time for their crimes.

They will go out into the various departments to tasks assigned them
by Warden Thomas W. Morgan. Places probably will be found for them as clerks and orderlies.

While guards and officials on the train reported that the convicted men
had laughed and joked on the journey
ney from Indianapolis, their demeanor, once inside the prison, changed and officials said they never
had seen a more sober, better disciplined group of men.

When the prisoners were given
their supply of clothing each man also
was handed a little book of prison
rules.

According to officials on the train, Mayor Roberts sang a song he had
made up to show his dislike for Crawford Fairbanks, a millionaire brewer of Terre Haute. Fairbanks had been a friend of Roberts and Roberts expected he would go on his bond. Fairbanks, however, refused.

Chicago, April 20.—John Metz,
president of the Carpenters' Distric,
council and chairman of the carpen-

state board of arbitration, said the carpenters would not return to work
while mediation is pending.

The state board of arbitration adjournd until Thursday and until then the carpenter contractors are not expected to make public any decision they may reach regarding the acceptance of mediation.

Two nonunion carpenters were beaten into unconsciousness while they were at work on a new church building. Their assailants escaped in an automobile. The injured men were taken to a hospital.

Well—everyone knows the effect of pin forests on coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for whooping cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep

IN CHICAGO DOOMED.
*****
Biloxi, Miss., April 20.—Municipal dances as a permanent
institution in Chicago are
doomed by decision of the finance committee of the Chicago city council. The committee came here to consider
the Chicago budget for 1916.
The members reached the conclusion that Chicago does
not need a welfare department
which experimented with the
dances last winter and no appropriation will be made for
its continuance. This, it was
said, seals the fate of the
dances, which, it is admitted,
were largely attended.

TERRE HAUTE MEN IN FEDERAL PRISON

Twenty-one Begin Serving Time
for Election Frauds.

Leavenworth, Kan., April 20.—
Twenty-one city officials and former officials of Terre Haute, Ind., convicted in the election conspiracy cases, are now in the United States penitentiary here as prisoners, serving time
for their crimes.

They will go out into the various
departments to tasks assigned them
by Warden Thomas W. Morgan. Places
probably will be found for them as
clerks and orderlies.

While guards and officials on the
train reported that the convicted men
had laughed and joked on the journey
ney from Indianapolis, their de-emeanor, once inside the prison,
changed and officials said they never
had seen a more sober, better disciplined group of men.

When the prisoners were given
their supply of clothing each man also
was handed a little book of prison
rules.

According to officials on the train,
Mayor Roberts sang a song he had
made up to show his dislike for Crawford Fairbanks, a millionaire brewer
of Terre Haute. Fairbanks had been a friend of Roberts and Roberts expected he would go on his bond. Fairbanks, however, refused.

CARPENTERS TO STAY IDLE

Will Not Return to Work Pending Arbitration of Strike.

Chicago, April 20.—John Metz,
president of the Carpenters' Distric,
council and chairman of the carpenters' committee, meeting with the state board of arbitration, said the
carpenters would not return to work
while mediation is pending.

The state board of arbitration ad-
journd until Thursday and until
then the carpenter contractors are
not expected to make public any decision they may reach regarding the
acceptance of mediation.

Two nonunion carpenters were
beaten into unconsciousness while
they were at work on a new church building. Their assailants escaped in an automobile. The injured men were taken to a hospital.

Beef Roll

A New Way of Using Left Overs
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Every housewife finds the disposition of left overs a most perplexing problem. K C Beef Roll will go a long way toward helping you out when the family get tired of hash and stews. You really ought to try it for supper tonight or tomorrow night at the latest.

Beef Roll, K C Style

Three cups flour; 1 teaspoonful salt; 3 level teaspoons K C Baking Powder; 1/2 cup shortening; 1 cup milk; 1 cup rich, chopped cooked beef and ham; 1 teaspoonful mixed mustard; 2 beaten eggs; grating of onion; 1/2 teaspoonful each, salt and pepper; broth or water.

Make a biscuit dough of the flour, salt, K C baking powder, shortening and milk, and roll into a sheet half an inch thick, having the ends even. Mix the other ingredients by themselves, using liquid as needed to make a paste. Spread the paste over the dough and roll like a jelly roll. Bake in a buttered pan about forty minutes. Brush over the outside with a little beaten egg left for the purpose and return to the oven to brown. Serve hot with a rich brown sauce. Other meats, such as chicken or veal, alone, or in combination, may be used. The onion and mustard may be omitted.

Ninety recipes—just think of it—by the famous cooking authority, Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, sent free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans of K C Baking Powder. Send for the handsome Cook's Book today to the JACQUES MFG. CO., Chicago.

EXTRA! DULUTH GOT A CLUE!

Slueth at New Duluth Hops on to Another Clue in the Celebrated Grace Fuda Case

The Duluth News Tribune prints a story under the head line "Hist! What Means This Fatal Number, Sleuth Demands Explanation from 'The Girl Who Disappeared' and Gets it," and that sizes up correctly little Grace and her "kidnaping" story. Here is the account in full:

"Brainerd—$526." Several days after Grace Fuda, "the girl who disappeared" was missed, a slip of paper was found in her room bearing this cryptic inscription.

The police were puzzled and suspicious. No one could give them an inkling of what the unfathomable mystery might mean.

Lieut. Robert McDermott of the New Duluth police station called on the Fuda girl on her return from her mysterious week's absence. He demanded to know about the number. The girl, smiling, told him it was "merely the number of a page in a book."

All night he pondered over the case and yesterday returned to the Fuda home.

"I'd like to see that book with over 8,000 pages," he requested.

"Certainly," said the girl. She took down an atlas, ran a finger down a column of figures and rested it at "Brainerd—$526."

"I thought I told you—it's the population of that town," she said.

"I see," said McDermott and walked back to the station.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

F. H. Grant to Attend Meeting of Curtis Publishing Co., Circulation Agents

F. H. Grant, the local representative of The Curtis Publishing company, will leave today for St. Paul, Minnesota, where he will attend a three days' convention of Curtis circulation agents from all parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, the Northern Peninsula of Michigan and the Canadian Province of Manitoba.

The delegates will be the guests of the publishers at the St. Paul hotel and the convention program includes various forms of entertainment in addition to the business sessions. One particularly interesting number will be a picture-talk descriptive of a journey through the Curtis building opposite Independence Square, Philadelphia, the biggest periodical publishing house in the world. The delegates, so to speak, will follow a roll of paper from the time it reaches the Curtis plant on electric trucks until it comes out in the form of finished magazines.

Perhaps the most important feature of the convention will be the announcement of a plan of vocational guidance which the Curtis Publishing company is developing along with the assistance of its agents and the leading manufacturers and business men of the country. Through this plan the company proposes to give its juvenile salesmen a thorough training in the essential principles of business and salesmanship while they are attending school and then when it becomes necessary for a boy to leave school to place him in a position where he will have an opportunity to develop and advance. The leading educators and business men throughout the nation have endorsed the plan and declare that it will be a truly wonderful work in saving many boys from what are known as blind-alley jobs.

The convention will open on Wednesday morning, April 21st, and continue throughout Thursday and Friday. The delegates will be welcomed by Mayor Powers, of St. Paul. The list of speakers in addition to the various Curtis agents and representatives from the Home Office in Philadelphia, will include J. A. McGuire, of the Station of the North Dakota Agricultural College.

JURY COMPLETE IN LIBEL CASE

William Barnes Is Suing Theodore Roosevelt.

DENIES MOTION TO DISMISS

Immediately After the Twelve Men Had Been Selected Counsel for the Former President Endeavors to Have the Action Thrown Out of Court.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 20.—The jury which will try William Barnes' $50,000 suit for alleged libel against Theodore Roosevelt was completed in the supreme court. It is composed of seven Republicans, three Progressives and two Democrats. Twenty-two talesmen were examined before both sides announced they were satisfied with the twelve men in the box.

Immediately after the jury had been completed counsel for Colonel Roosevelt made a motion to dismiss the complaint against their client upon the ground that such allegations as he made in the statement upon which the suit is based were privileged and that in naming Mr. Barnes and Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall as the controllers of "rotten government" in the state of New York he did not mean anything personal or to imply that either of the two men named had in any way profited by the alleged "rottenness."

The motion was denied by Justice William S. Andrews, presiding. Actual taking of testimony will begin upon the conclusion of the opening address of William M. Ivins, chief of Mr. Barnes' legal staff. The first witnesses will be newspaper men to whom Colonel Roosevelt issued the alleged offending statement. Other newspaper reporters will be called.

MEANS FRANK MUST HANG

Federal Supreme Court Refuses to Interfere in Case.

Washington, April 20.—Leo M. Frank, the Brooklyn man under death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta factory girl, lost the last step in his long legal fight for life in the supreme court of the United States. In a decision, to which Justices Holmes and Hughes dissented, the court dismissed Frank's appeal from the federal court of Georgia, which refused to release him on a writ of habeas corpus. Frank contended that "alleged mob violence at his trial and the fact that he was absent from the courtroom when the jury returned its verdict had removed him from the jurisdiction of the courts of Georgia."

The majority opinion of the supreme court rejected all these contentions and declared Frank enjoyed all his legal rights in the Georgia courts. Seemingly no other avenue of escape from the death penalty is open to Frank through the courts. The state pardon officials might relieve him.

Chicago—Mayor Elect William Hale Thompson today announced he would go on the water wagon, high and dry, throughout the four years of his term on the ground that he'd be unable to stand the strain otherwise.

Wealthy Californian Dead.

San Francisco, April 20.—Isaac Kohn, reputed to be one of the wealthiest men on the Pacific coast, is dead here. He was ninety-one years old. He made his first business success in a general merchandise business in Portland, Ore., in the early '50s. He was said to be one of the largest lenders of money on the Pacific coast several years ago.

JURY COMPLETE
IN LIBEL CASE

William Barnes Is Suing Theodore Roosevelt.

DENIES MOTION TO DISMISS

Immediately After the Twelve Men Had Been Selected Counsel for the Former President Endeavors to Have the Action Thrown Out of Court.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 20.—The jury which will try William Barnes' $50,000 suit for alleged libel against Theodore Roosevelt was completed in the supreme court. It is composed of seven Republicans, three Progressives and two Democrats.

Twenty-two talesmen were examined before both sides announced they were satisfied with the twelve men in the box.

Immediately after the jury had been completed counsel for Colonel Roosevelt made a motion to dismiss the complaint against their client upon the ground that such allegations as he made in the statement upon which the suit is based were privileged and that in naming Mr. Barnes and Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall as the controllers of "rotten government" in the state of New York he did not mean anything personal or to imply that either of the two men named had in any way profited by the alleged "rottenness."

The motion was denied by Justice William S. Andrews, presiding. Actual taking of testimony will begin upon the conclusion of the opening address of William M. Ivins, chief of Mr. Barnes' legal staff. The first witnesses will be newspaper men to whom Colonel Roosevelt issued the alleged offending statement. Other newspaper reporters will be called.

Federal Supreme Court Refuses to Interfere in Case.

Washington, April 20.—Leo M. Frank, the Brooklyn man under death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta factory girl, lost the last step in his long legal fight for life in the supreme court of the United States.

In a decision, to which Justices Holmes and Hughes dissented, the court dismissed Frank's appeal from the federal court of Georgia, which refused to release him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Frank contended that "alleged mob violence at his trial and the fact that he was absent from the courtroom when the jury returned its verdict had removed him from the jurisdiction of the courts of Georgia."

The majority opinion of the supreme court rejected all these contentions and declared Frank enjoyed all his legal rights in the Georgia courts.

Seemingly no other avenue of escape from the death penalty is open to Frank through the courts. The state pardon officials might relieve him.

SALOONS PASS OUT OF BRAINERD

Council Canvasses the Vote at the Monday Evening, April 19,
Regular Session

DRY VICTORY IS RECORDED

Unofficial Figures Given by Dispatch, 809, Wet, 986 Dry, Confirmed in the Count

For the first time in its eventful history of 45 or more years Brainerd is dry, and according to the law should be as dry as a bone today.

The unofficial figures on the license question, as given in the Dispatch on April 7, were confirmed in the canvass made by the council last night, the totals being wet or for license 809, dry or against license 986.

A large audience stood patiently in the council chambers until the council took up the count near 11 o'clock. Then there was a murmur of approval.

The voice of the city clerk, A. Mahlum, was heard as he patiently read the figures and the council checked the vote. The telephone bell rang at intervals and people inquired:

"Has the council canvassed the vote?"

"How is the election going?"

"Will somebody notify the saloon keepers to close?"

"Are they going to refund the unpaid license money?"

And a score of other queries were launched at the man at the telephone.

The figures as given by the Dispatch were in the main correct. B. J. Broady received the largest vote for special municipal judge and was declared elected.

Changes were shown in the figures recorded on amendments. The vote on charter showed that the third ward gave $7 for and 215 against the charter, the latter being 100 more than the unofficial figures.

The canvassed vote on charter reads: For the charter 579, against the charter 919.

The vote on 5 commissioners was 554, the canvassed vote in the first ward reading 79 instead of 75 as given in the Dispatch. The vote for seven commissioners stood 666.

Amendment No. 148, which related to a quarter mill increase in library taxes, had some changes recorded over the Dispatch figures. The canvassing figures are:

Amendment 148, yes, first ward 61, second 207, third 89, fourth 76, fifth 109, total 554. The no vote stood first ward 123, second 150, third 146, fourth 157, fifth 180, total 542. The figures 159 no and 207 yes had been transposed by the Dispatch in writing up the result of the count in the second ward.

Amendment No. 59, relating to the control of library matters by the library board and doing away with the present supervision of the council, recorded no change in the yes vote, that being 610. On the nay vote the result was 607. A change of 1 vote, making the figures 123 instead of 122 was recorded in the second ward.

The matter of refunding saloon licenses and of giving the liquor men an opportunity to be represented by counsel and to be heard on their side of the question, was on motion, ordered to be taken up at a special meeting soon to be called.

The dancing was enjoyed in the club rooms of the Camels on the third floor of the Iron Exchange building, the rooms being decorated in a very pleasing manner with cut flowers and various colored lights. In the reception room frappe and cakes were served. The Blue Ribbon orchestra furnished the music for the dancers and many comments were heard on the excellence of that musical organization.

In the club rooms on the second floor of the Iron Exchange cards were indulged in, whilst and 500 being the games enjoyed. Here, frappe and cakes were also served and a Victrola furnished music for the enjoyment of the guests, the instrument having been kindly loaned for the occasion by the H. F. Michael company. ## STREET RAILWAY IS HEARD FROM

George Reid, President of the Minnesota Central Railway Co., Writes Manly Letter

DETAILS BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Praises the Brainerd City Council as One of the Best the City Ever Had

George Reid, president of the Minnesota Central Railway Co., in a communication to the council last night, said: "With much regret we beg to inform you that this company will be unable to carry out its contract with the city of Brainerd for the construction of a street railway as part of a Cuyuna Range electric line, for the reason that we have been unable to finance the company."

"The business depression of last year had just begun to lift when the world's greatest war was declared, making it impossible to raise the money for any new industrial enterprise, and now that the business revival is beginning, prosperity has come too late for the successful carrying out of the enterprise, since under our Brainerd franchise we should have begun work two days ago and have the road in operation by September 15 next."

"Personally, I have invested about $4900 and a year and a half of time in the project and Mr. Ferrier has invested an equal amount. We have endeavored to interest capital in several cities, including New York. We are firm believers in the future of Brainerd. In our opinion it is certain to be the fourth city in Minnesota. Its central location, its manufacturing possibilities, the fine farming country and the great iron range behind it are bound to make of Brainerd a metropolis in time. We pin our faith to your city, and are satisfied that others who may follow in our footsteps, under favorable business conditions, will build up a well paying electric railway system radiating from Brainerd and bringing a large volume of business into your city."

"We take occasion to thank you, gentlemen, for the consideration shown to this company, and we congratulate you upon the generally accepted fact that you have formed the best council Brainerd has ever had."

having always at heart the best interests of your city.

"May I suggest that you conclude your labors by revoking our franchise, so as to leave your successors free without delay to grant a franchise to some other company in a position to go ahead with the construction of a Brainerd street railway and a Cuyuna range electric line."

Again thanking you for the intelligence shown in dealing with our franchise, and wishing success to you all and individually,

Sincerely yours,
MINNESOTA CENTRAL RAILWAY COMPANY.

By GEORGE REID,
President.

Motion carried to place the letter on the records.

All members of the council were present. Alderman Betzold made a verbal report regarding the Northwestern hospital.

Six mattresses were ordered bought for the city lockup. Sidewalk and curbing are to be constructed around the city hall. The city engineer was instructed to install the column of granite. A lease is to be drawn up with W. T. Kennedy for pastureage this season, Kennedy paying $30 for the use of the Holland eighty.

Alderman Stadman brought up the fire truck matter. The committee reported favorably on its acceptance. The ay and nay vote being taken stood:

7 ayes. Aldermen Hagberg, Stadman, Smith, Hess, Peterson, Gallupe and President Lagerquist.

3 nays. Aldermen Anderson, Betzold and Haake.

The water and light board asked permission to purchase a carload of cedar poles and four and six inch pipe and the council assented. The matter of finishing up the catch basins for service in East Brainerd was left with the city engineer. No action was taken on the appointment of a janitor for the city hall.

George Donant presented a bill of $333.20, a refund he wanted on liquor license. It was placed on file.

Ordinance No. 271 extending the boundaries of sewer district No. 7 so as to include block No. 219 in the First Addition was adopted.

The matter of changing the bell at the hose house was left to be taken up at the special meeting soon to be announced. J. N. Johnson Co. said they would change the couplings on the hose to conform to requirements.

The application of Fred C. Cook for a pool table license was granted. A protest against a sewer was referred to the new council.

Permits were granted E. R. Smith Auto Co., Auto Sales Co. and O'Brien Mercantile Co. to install gasoline tanks and pump stations for auto and other service.

Dr. R. A. Beise, president of the Board of Health of the city, in a communication to the council, said: "Owing to the sudden turn of the mild weather which has caused the frost to be all out of the ground, I would ask your honorable body to kindly appoint a sanitary police at once so that we may get busy and clean up our city as quickly as possible."

"In way of suggestion, I believe that the sanitary police could also be instructed to check up the dog tax and the wheelage tax and thus relieve our regular policemen of this part of their duty."

The council ordered advertisements in the papers asking that alleys and lots be cleaned up on or before May 6. The matter of electing a sanitary policeman was left to the new council. P. H. Knutzen had an application on file for the position.

The city attorney is to look up the status of Fifth street as same is about to be opened.

On motion of Aldermen Anderson and Gallupe a special meeting is to be called to consider city hall building matters, and contractors and architects are to appear before the council, a general settlement being contemplated.

7 ayes, Aldermen Hagberg, Stallman, Smith, Hess, Peterson, Gallupe and President Lagerquist.

3 nays, Aldermen Anderson, Betzold and Haake.

The water and light board asked permission to purchase a carload of cedar poles and four and six inch pipe and the council assented. The matter of finishing up the catch basins for service in East Brainerd was left with the city engineer. No action was taken on the appointment of a janitor for the city hall.

George Donant presented a bill of $333.20, a refund he wanted on liquor license. It was placed on file.

Ordinance No. 271 extending the boundaries of sewer district No. 7 to as to include block No. 219 in the First Addition was adopted.

The matter of changing the bell at the hose house was left to be taken up at the special meeting soon to be announced. J. N. Johnson Co. said they would change the couplings on the hose to conform to requirements.

The application of Fred C. Cook for a pool table license was granted. A protest against a sewer was referred to the new council.

Permits were granted E. R. Smith Auto Co., Auto Sales Co. and O'Brien Mercantile Co. to install gasoline tanks and pump stations for auto and other service.

Dr. R. A. Boies, president of the Board of Health of the city, in a communication to the council, said: "Owing to the sudden turn of the mild weather which has caused the frost to be all out of the ground, I would ask your honorable body to kindly appoint a sanitary police at once so that we may get busy and clean up our city as quickly as possible."

In way of suggestion, I believe that the sanitary police could also be instructed to check up the dog tax and the wheelage tax and thus relieve our regular policemen of this part of their duty."

The council ordered advertisements in the papers asking that alleys and lots be cleaned up on or before May 6. The matter of electing a sanitary policeman was left to the new council. P. H. Knutzen had an application on file for the position.

The city attorney is to look up the status of Fifth street as same is about to be opened.

On motion of Aldermen Anderson and Gallupe a special meeting is to be called to consider city hall building matters, and contractors and architects are to appear before the council, a general settlement being contemplated.

THE GOOD JUDGE GETS A REASON THAT HE KNOWS IS GOOD

TEMPER, whether good or bad, depends a heap on a man's getting the tobacco satisfaction he has a right to.

Man after man will tell you that "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew, gives a comfort and contentment he never had before. He insists on it for himself and he recommends it to his friends.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

SYNOPSIS.

In her apartment at the Leland Ella, daughter of Lord Ashleigh, is murdered and the Ashleigh diamond necklace stolen. The New York police place the case in the hands of Sanford Quest, known and feared as the master criminologist of the world. He takes Lenora, Ella's maid, to his own apartment and through hypnosis and the use of electro-telepathic appliances discovers her connection with the crime, recovers the diamonds and arrests the murderer, Macdonald, Lenora's husband, though nearly trapped to his death in a tough tenement house while engaged in the work.

"THE HIDDEN HANDS."

CHAPTER VI.

Sanford Quest and Lenora stood side by side upon the steps of the courthouse, waiting for the automobile, which had become momentarily entangled in a string of vehicles. A little crowd of people were elbowing their way out on to the sidewalk. The faces of most of them were still shadowed by the three hours of tense drama from which they had just emerged. Quest, who had lit a cigar, watched them curiously.

"No need to go into court," he remarked. "I could have told you, from the look of these people, that Macdonald had escaped the death sentence. They have paid their money—or rather their time, and they have been cheated of the one supreme thrill."

"Imprisonment for life seems terrible enough," Lenora whispered, shuddering.

"Can't see the sense of keeping such a man alive myself," Quest declared, with purposeful brutality. "It was a cruel murder, fiendishly committed."

They were on the point of crossing the pavement toward the automobile when Quest felt a touch upon his shoulder. He turned and found Lord Ashleigh standing by his side. Quest glanced towards Lenora.

"Run and get in the car," he whispered. "I will be there in a moment." "I would not have stopped you just now, Mr. Quest," said Lord Ashleigh. "but my brother is very anxious to renew his acquaintance with you. I think you met years ago."

Sanford Quest held out his hand to the man who had been standing a little in the background. Lord Ashleigh turned towards him.

"This is Mr. Quest, Edgar. You may remember my brother—Professor Ashleigh—as a man of science. Quest? He has just returned from South America."

The two shook hands, curiously diverse in type, in expression. In all the appearances of manhood.

"I am very proud to make your acquaintance again, professor," Quest said. "Glad to know, too, that you hadn't forgotten me."

"My dear sir," the professor declared, as he released the other's hand with seeming reluctance, "I have thought about you many times. Your doings have always been of interest to me."

"I am sorry," Quest remarked, "that our first meeting here should be under such distressing circumstances."

The professor nodded gravely. "If you'll excuse me, professor," said Quest, "I think I must be getting along. We shall meet again, I trust."

"One moment," the professor begged, eagerly. "Tell me, Mr. Quest—I want your honest opinion. What do you think of my ape?"

"Of your what?" Quest inquired dubiously.

"Of my anthropoid ape which I have just sent to the museum. You know my claim? But perhaps you would prefer to postpone your final decision until after you have examined the skeleton itself."

A light broke in upon the criminologist.

"Of course!" he exclaimed. "For the moment, professor, I couldn't follow you. You are talking about the skeleton of the ape which you brought home from South America, and which you have presented to the museum here?"

"Naturally," the professor assented, with mild surprise. "To what else? I am stating my case, Mr. Quest, in the North American Review next month; I may tell you, however, as a fellow scientist, the great and absolute truth. My claim is incontestable. My skeleton will prove to the world, without a doubt, the absolute truth of Darwin's great theory."

"That so?"

"You must go and see it," the professor insisted. "You shall be permitted a special examination."

"Very kind of you," Quest murmured.

"We shall meet again soon, I hope," the professor concluded cordially. "Good-morning, Mr. Quest!"

The two men shook hands and Quest took his seat by Lenora's side in the automobile. The professor rejoined his brother.

They entered the taxicab and were driven almost in silence to the professor's home—a large, rambling old house, situated in somewhat extensive but ill-kept grounds on the outskirts of New York. The Englishman glanced around him, as they passed up the drive, with an expression of disapproval.

"A more untidy looking place than yours, Edgar, I never saw," he declared. "Your grounds have become a jungle. Don't you keep any gardeners?"

"I keep other things," he said serenely. "There is something in my garden which would terrify your nice Scotch gardeners into fits if they found their way here to do a little tidying up. Come into the library and I'll give you one of my choice cigars. Here's Craig waiting to let us in. Any news, Craig?"

"Nothing has happened, sir," he replied. "The telephone is ringing in the study now, though."

"I will answer it myself," the professor declared, bustling off.

The professor took up the receiver from the telephone. His "Hello!" was mild and inquiring. He had no doubt that the call was from some admiring disciple. The change in his face as he listened, however, was amazing.

"George," he gasped, "the greatest tragedy in the world has happened! My ape is stolen!"

His brother looked at him blankly.

"Your ape is stolen?" he repeated.

"The skeleton of my anthropoid ape," the professor continued, his voice growing alike in sadness and firmness. "It is the curator of the museum who is speaking. They have just opened the box. It has lain for two days in an anteroom. It is empty!"

Lord Ashleigh muttered something a little vague. The theft of a skeleton scarcely appeared to his unscientific mind to be a realizable thing. The professor turned back to the telephone.

"Mr. Francis," he said, "I cannot talk to you. I can say nothing. I shall come to you at once. I am on the point of starting. Your news has overwhelmed me."

He laid down the receiver. He looked around him like a man in a nightmare.

"The taxicab is waiting, sir," Craig reminded him.

"That is most fortunate," the professor pronounced. "I remember now that I had no change with which to pay him. I must go back. Look after my brother. And, Craig, telephone at once to Mr. Sanford Quest. Ask him to meet me at the museum in twenty minutes. Tell him that nothing must stand in the way. Do you hear?"

The taxicab man drove off, glad enough to have a return fare. In about half an hour's time the professor strode up the steps of the museum and hurried into the office. There was a little crowd of officials there, whom the curator at once dismissed. He rose slowly to his feet. His manner was grave and bewildered.

"Professor," he said, "we will waste no time in words. Look here!"

He threw open the door of an anteroom behind his office. The apartment was unfurnished except for one or two chairs. In the middle of the uncarpeted floor was a long wooden box from which the lid had just been pried.

"Yesterday, as you know from my note," the curator proceeded, "I was away. I gave orders that your case should be placed here that I myself should enjoy the distinction of opening it. An hour ago I commenced the task. That is what I found."

The professor gazed blankly at the empty box.

"Nothing left except the smell," a voice from the open doorway remarked.

They glanced around. Quest was standing there, and behind him Lenora. The professor welcomed them eagerly.
